

WEEK NOT IDENTIFIED.

New Haveners Unable to Recognize the Supposed Postoffice Robbers.

The hearing of the four men who were recently arrested in New York and are supposed to be the gang who stole about $300 from the New Haven post office several months ago will take place in New York city before United States Commissioner Shields this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Last evening Postmaster Beach received a dispatch from Post Office Inspector O'Brien, which was dated at New York and read as follows: "Don't fail to send person to identify thieves. See Cowles and have him send man who drove back from West Haven. Hearing at 2 p.m. to-morrow. I will be at post office inspector's office here. Send mail."

Postmaster Beach immediately upon receipt of the dispatch placed himself in communication with Detective Sergeant Cowles, who informed him that he and Miss Lyon, the money order clerk at the post office, and one or two others who had been the post office had gone to New York on Saturday, but had been unable to positively identify any of the suspects. Among the number was William Russell, the blackman, who drove the thieves from this city to West Haven.

Upon obtaining this information, Postmaster Beach wired to Inspector O'Brien the facts in the case and asked whether he should send any money order persons down to the hearing to-day. Up to a late hour last night, however, had received no reply to his dispatch. It is one of the possibilities that Stamp Clerk Hayes may be sent down to the hearing to-day.

OLD SOLDIERS' SERVICE.

Held at City Missions Hall Last Evening—A Very Interesting Occasion.

The soldiers' service under the auspices of Admiral Poote post, G. A. R., which was held at the City Mission hall last evening, was largely attended. Addresses were made by Commodore Hart, Baldwin, Langdale and Lincoln. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Mossman, the mission pastor, assisted by Rev. Mr. Phelps and Mr. W. G. Skinner. Mr. Isaac Smith of Davenport church led the singing. The pianists were Miss Grace Law and Miss Lucy Haverfield; organist, Professor Stevens. Singing was rendered by a quartet composed of Miss McDonald, Miss Payne, Mr. Stanley of New Britain and Mr. Pratt; duets by Miss Richardson and Miss Payne; solos by Miss McDonald and Mr. Stanley. The hall was beautifully decorated with American colors and flowers kindly furnished by the ladies. Two stands of guns were loaned by Major Brown of the Post Guard. Mr. Champion, the florist, loaned some very fine palms. The exercises were highly enjoyed.

TO SAIL FOR KIEL.

The American War Ships are Now at Southampton.

Southampton, June 2.—The American warships in Southampton preparatory to sail for Kiel, where they will take part in the opening of the North Sea-Battle, have added to the gaiety of the town. The harbor to-day was alive with boats and launches and all day long the pier where the boats arrived and departed were lined with people watching the movements of the blue-jackets.

The Alliance steamed slowly outside last night and then she headed course westward. She is bound for Newport, but will probably call at Madeira. Her decks were crowded with officers and men. As she passed the flagship she fired a salute. The squadron will probably sail for Kiel on June 11.
